

Packing and Shipment of White Blood Cell Apheresis Collection for Central Cryopreservation US Manual Summary of Changes – updated to Version 6 December 2025

---

- Entire document –
  - Updated page numbers from header to footer
  - Updated all instances of Janssen with Johnson & Johnson
  - Capitalized all instances of Col/CoC and adjusted to COI/C CQUENCE where applicable
  - Updated page numbers as needed
  - Updated instances of LN2 Freezer with vapor phase liquid nitrogen storage
- Front page –
  - Manual design updated to new J&J branding
  - Version number and effective month/year updated
- Page 2 –
  - Added table of contents
- Page 3 –
  - Added third bullet for requirement of two personnel members working during unpacking process
  - Added fifth bullet that the user should be logged into the COI/C CQUENCE portal
  - Numbered instructions as necessary
  - Added “or defective” to note on right margin
  - Updated step 4 to read “inner payload box”
- Page 4 –
  - Updated step 5 to be more specific to WBC apheresis
  - Added new step 7 about securing TIC panel
- Page 5 –
  - Added last bullet referencing paper-based process if required
- End page –
  - Updated version number and effective month/year
  - Updated “US” to document name